

Month: March 2014

Scripture: Exodus 14:13 “And Moses said unto the people, fear not stand still and see the salvation of the Lord which he will show to you today. For the Egyptians whom ye have seen today, ye shall see them again no more forever.

Food for Thought: Fear Not...It's a set Up!

I don't know what the Egyptians mean to you today, it could be sickness, it could be financial trouble, it could be family strife and turmoil, or it could be people who are trying to attack & destroy your life. Or it could be a habit or an addiction that you haven't been able to conquer. Whatever it is God said to tell you that this is your month for victory.

How many times have you been at the place where it seems like all hell has broken loose against you, and you look around for help but there is no help to be found? And it feels like you are surrounded and the enemy is coming at you from every side.

Maybe you are where you are because of foolishness on your part, wrong choices, wrong actions, wrong associations, wrong instructions. But whatever the reason, it feels like you are caught somewhere in something with no way of escape. You've been crying out to God for deliverance, for help and it looks to you and feels to you, like everything has taken one giant step forward from bad, to worse, to impossible. But I want you to know It's a setup!!

What I'm telling you today is this: God has been using this situation, this dilemma, this storm, to draw your enemies together, to draw them out of hiding, some of the ones that used to walk around talking behind your back, are now standing up in your face, and some of them that have been working in the dark, God is turning the light on, and he's uncovering them.

Beloved, God sent an elevator your way and it came in the form of a storm and an enemy, God said he would make your haters into elevators. Everyone saw Goliath as a hater, but David saw him as an elevator. I know it sounds crazy but you need to thank those enemies for pushing you into your destiny. Everything the enemy sent to take you down, God is going to use it to lift you up. Don't give up on the edge of a miracle. Stand still God is getting ready to show up and show out!

Praying for you.
