

Month: January 2012

Scripture: 3 John 2 says; “Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers”

Food for thought: New Year, New You & New Attitude!

Whoop whoop!! New year! New You! New Attitude! Precious lady you have not entered into 2012 just to get by.....so get excited about your new possibilities! I highly recommend you get going on fulfilling them with excellence, starting NOW because time waits for no one. Once it is spent, it is gone. Time steadily continues, tick-tick-tick, never missing a beat. The next day or week or year arrives right on schedule. You're here to live life with excellence, to the full till it overflows but time is of essence my dear friend!

This is your season of milk & honey, season of abundance & victory and you are absolutely capable of achieving that “thing” with excellence in your own unique way. Why should you settle for anything less? You are fully capable of getting yourself into “the zone” of maximum effectiveness, any day & any time you desire. Instead of waiting for everything to fall into place, you can make all the things in your world fall into place through a new attitude.

However you & I have work to do because our new attitude towards life & success is not something that just happens. It's going to take W.O.R.K! It starts in the morning when you get out of bed. It continues through every moment of the day. Maintaining a successful new attitude is built & developed in the smallest of things. i.e while you are waiting in traffic, during lunch, when you're walking the dog, sitting at your desk, running errands etc. It comes from your new attitude, your new posture, your new diet, your new use of time, the new way you relate to others, the new way you respond to challenges both large and small, the new way you talk to yourself and others, the new priorities you choose to follow, and every little new detail of every new day. Loving the Lord and obeying Gods word will produce the desired results u want.

I am not talking about a one-time, get-it-done-and-get-it-over-with new proposition. I am talking about a permanent new way of life in 2012!! It's about living each moment of each day with a new attitude of success. That means when & if you're going to do something, do what's necessary to do it with excellence. If you're going to spend the time and make the effort, make enough effort to make it great. Prov. 10:4 says; “He who is lazy becomes poor, But the hand of the diligent makes rich & proverbs 15:19 says “a lazy person has trouble all through life; the path of the upright is easy!

Don't allow the new you & your fabulous new attitude to be sabotaged by dream killers or even your own negative attitude or just uncaring peoples. In 2012 make a deliberate decision to stay away from dream killers- they zap your energy, assassinate your plans & destroy the purposes of God. I will go as far as to say "run" with your life from people who do nothing but spout negative stuff!! The ambitious plans you've made with the best of intentions can quickly fall by the wayside if your sphere of influence is contaminated.

So go on beautiful woman & tear open the doors of opportunities, be a source of relentless excellence and truly make a difference....you have only 11months to go. You can do it! tick-tick-tick.....
Happy New year, Happy New you & Happy New attitude!
